Like the Green Fairy herself, Croque Monsieur is small,
perfectly formed and perfumed with anicede.

Hidden beneath Lost Boys Pizza in Camden, you'll find an authentic Absinthe Bar with a truly Bohemian welcome. The Fairy wants you to join us. She promises fun and frivolity.

There are no rules, but the Fairy provides a selection of Inhibition Hats which help guests magically lose theirs.

She's also curated a playlist of singalong bangers and enchanted our servers to expertly guide you through our menu.

Full Absinthe Menu available at lost Boys Pizza every day.
Croque Monsieur open Friday & Saturday nights, 630pm until late, Private Hire available for screenings, karaoke and drinks parties.

Absinthe Menu

Pernod	£7	68.5%	abv	Smooth, clean, sweet, alpine notes.
Nouvelle Orleans	£9	68%	abv	Belle Epoque Style; intensely herbal and vegetal notes.
Jade 1898	£11	65%	abv	Reverse engineered to an 1898 recipe —, fresh alpine, eucalyptus and chocolate notes.
Espirit Eduarde	£12	72%	abv	Reverse engineered from a Cuban export strength bottle bought at auction. Subtle cinnamon sweetness, smooth and mellow, dried herbs.
Maison Fontaine Blanc	£8	55%	abv	Modern light, floral, approachable, eucalyptus and mint.
Maison Fontaine Verte	£8	55%	abv	The natural green colouring comes from the mix of herbal botanicals steeped in the spirit before bottling. A classically styled green absinthe.
L'Entetee	£8	62%	abv	Smooth, creamy, rich. Provençal fennel and Spanish anise.
St George	£10	60%	abv	The first legal American absinthe released after the ban was lifted in 2007. From California with star anise, fennel, lemon balm, hyssop and stinging nettles.
Vieux Pontalier	£10	65%	abv	Spiced anise and fennel, with a minty edge from the Pontarlier wormwood.
